Table of Contents

Chapter

1. So You’re an Entrepreneur – Apply It to a Dental Practice!  Step One  ........................................... 1
2. The Boutique Car Wash or the Auto Collision Center – Pick Your Demographics Carefully!  Step Two ........................................... 7
3. The Medical Treatment Model – Stop Being a Psychologist and Start Being a Surgeon!  Step Three ........................................... 14
4. Restorative Choices – Don’t Let The Cosmetic Hype Cause You Stress!  Step Four ........................................... 20
5. The Multi-doctor, Multi-office Model – It Works! Do It!  Step Five ........................................... 24
7. Manage Your Practice Like a Big Business – Forget the Dental Trend!  Step Seven ........................................... 32
8. Advisors – Get Away From the In-Office Divas and Can’t Do Dentists – Hire Pros!  Step Eight ........................................... 41
9. The Ortho Opportunity – Why It Can be a Win Win!  Step Nine ........................................... 45
10. The Job’s Not Done — Monitor Your Results, Evaluate Your Performance, Make Corrections When Necessary!  Step Ten ........................................... 49
11. Non-Profits and Government Agencies – On Your Side or Not!  ........................................... 52
12. What Organized Dentistry Misses — and Doesn’t Know It! ........................................... 55
13. What the Academic Centers Don’t Teach–and Never Could! ........................................... 57
14. Continuing Education – Stop the Social Dancing and Get To Real Networking! ........................................... 59
15. Where to Start – A Business Plan Is Essential! ........................................... 61
16. Consequences of Success – Mostly Positive! ........................................... 63
Epilogue  ........................................... 65
Sanger’s Ten Bonus Points (They’re Free) ........................................... 67